

GIRL JUMPS OVERBOARD AND FIGHTS TO DIE

Has No Desire to Live, Helen Bower Says, Because Her Health Is Poor.

Helen Bower, a pretty young girl, of No. 27 Twelfth street, College Point, was standing on the Point View dock today when William Doyle was preparing his boat to go fishing.

"Won't you take me along?" the girl asked.

"Well, I guess I can make room for you," said Doyle, and he helped the girl get a seat in the stern.

"The doctor says I must stay on the shore as much as possible," said the girl, as Doyle pulled out for the fishing grounds.

When about a hundred feet from shore the girl suddenly stood up and before Doyle realized her intention she jumped in the water.

Doyle, who is a strong swimmer, leaped after the girl. He carried her back to the boat, and despite her struggles he managed to get her over the side. He was in the boat himself and pulling back to shore before the rescuers on shore were fairly organized.

At the Flatbush Hospital, where both Doyle and the girl were taken, Miss Bower said she wanted to die. She said her health was poor and, as there was little hope for recovery, she had no desire to live.

Mrs. Bower told the police the girl had a suicidal mania. A month ago she tried to take carbolic acid. Her mother snatched the bottle from her hand. The girl is a prisoner charged with attempting suicide.

A SWEET LOVE SONG.
Another Geo. Cohen song will be given with next Sunday's World, words and music complete. This time it is from the Victor Moore show, "The Talk of New York," at the Knickerbocker. "I Want the World to Know I Love You" is a sweet love song that every piano player and every home singer will want.

FOUR SUSPECTS IN BLACK HAND JOBS

Two of Them Arrested Before In Connection With Two Murder Mysteries.

Cavase and Michele, of the Italian detective bureau, took to Headquarters last night four elderly men they had picked up in a Chianti cave at No. 233 Elizabeth street on suspicion of knowing something about the bomb throwing of March 25, which was fourth in the present east side series of edition de luxe Black Hand jobs and occurred at No. 246 Elizabeth street.

The prisoners were Antonio La Bue, a saloon-keeper, and his brother, Ciro La Bue, a laborer, both of No. 318 Bowery; Domenico Pecoraro, a salesman, of No. 26 Osborne street, Brownsville, and Giuseppe Monteleone, a saloon-keeper at No. 15 Stanton street.

Pecoraro was arrested in connection with two famous murder puzzles—the barrel mystery, when Paul the Ox was killed, and the Green Trunk murder of years before, when a peddler named Weisbord was shot and killed. He was also arrested at the time of the inquiry into the barrel murder.

TWO ROBBER SUSPECTS.

Men on Suspended Sentences Are Charged With Another Crime.

Richard Voolson, a furrier, of No. 233 East Sixteenth street, better known on the east side as "Cooper the Wrestler," and Richard Wellman, eighteen years old, who said he was a baker living on Staten Island, were arrested last night at Seventh street and Third avenue. They are suspected of knowing about the daylight robbery of the apartment of Mrs. Graham, at No. 125 West Tenth street, when property worth $400 was carried away. In Voolson's pocket was a pawn ticket calling for a diamond ring worth $60.

Inspector McCafferty was angry when he saw the two prisoners as line-up to-day, and learned that both of them were under suspended sentences. Voolson for alleged burglary, and Wellman for alleged participation in the noted series of housebreakings around Stuyvesant Park.

Judge Foster, of General Sessions, had paroled Voolson, and Judge Crain let Wellman go.

LITTLE HOPE FOR STRANDED HUDSON

Crew Works All Night at Schooner's Pumps—Likely to Pound to Pieces.

The big five-masted schooner Hudson will in all probability be a total loss. It was declared to-day by the Merritt-Chapman wrecking people, who are working to save the big fore-and-aft that drove ashore off Shinnecock, L. I., in the heavy fog. The members of her crew are still aboard, and through the night manned the pumps in an endeavor to get the seven feet of water she shipped when she drove on the sandbank out of her hold. They had their labor for their pains, though, as she shipped water as fast as the pumps could draw.

The wreckers say the big vessel has lodged on the port side and if any kind of a sea gets up will go to pieces rapidly. The Hudson was formerly the Fannie Palmer, and was bound from Portsmouth and Boston to Baltimore when she ran on the bank. Her skipper had no idea she was off her course till she grounded. She lies so near shore that at low water it is possible to get quite close to her. The Hudson has been in trouble before. Last year the Bulgaria, of the Hamburg-American line, sliced off twenty feet of her stern with the neatness of a cheese cutter when the two craft collided in the Swash and Odney channels.

GOVERNMENT TAKES OVER NEW CRUISER BIRMINGHAM.

BOSTON, April 10.—The scout cruiser Birmingham came up the harbor from the yard of her builders, the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, and was formally turned over to the government officials at the Navy Yard to-day. Commander Burne T. Walling will command the new craft.

It is expected the Birmingham will be nearly two months fitting for sea.

VOGEL BROTHERS

A New Suit for Easter

IN the full strength of its completeness, this is truly a superb showing of Spring Suits. Within its scope is every model that fashion sanctions—each the best of its type. Suits that are conservative in conception—suits designed for the ultra-fashionable dresser—suits in the most beautiful fabrics, from the brightest tones to the subdued black—suits for every man at every price—$12.50, $15, $18, $20, $25, $30 and $35.

The New Suits at $12.50

Bear in mind that these suits have nothing in common with the regular $12.50 sort. They come direct to you from our own workrooms, without any gathered profits, or the price would be $15 at least. Smart, stylish models and patterns, with fabrics that are pure wool to the last thread. Supreme values at $12.50.

The New Suits at $15

These great stocks of suits at $15 emphasize the supremacy of the House of Vogel Brothers. The range of choice is unlimited, embracing every favored model, from the most conservative to the extreme radical. The fabrics are of exceptional beauty—clever weaves and new shades of gray, brown, tan, olive and darker mixtures. Far and wide, you cannot find a suit to equal these at $15.

The New Suits at $18

Light colored worsteds, elegant, rich velours, dark overplaid worsteds in an amazing diversity of colors and weaves. Perfection is revealed in every line—the new cuffs, the broad, deep lapels—and the many other latest style innovations proclaim them suits of the day. Conservative and radical models, as perfect in fit and tailoring as suits can be made. A value we are proud of—$18.

The New Suits at $20

Never has the triumph of Vogel Brothers' suits been more complete than in this showing at $20. When you have seen them you will admit that they were never equalled at the price. The fact is they are $25 garments in every respect. The patterns and colorings are superb and will meet with the demands of every taste. Every approved style is shown—perfect in designing and tailoring. A great special indeed at $20.

Overcoats for Easter

Ranging in Price from $12.50 to $30

The New Overcoats at $12.50

When a man buys an overcoat, no matter how modestly priced, he wants one that is stylish and serviceable. And here they are—tailored and styled as you would have them—and priced very moderately indeed—but $12.50. If we did not make them ourselves and sell them direct to you the price would be from $25.00 to $50.00. All the new models in splendid black Thibets and the smart light colors—unequaled at $12.50.

The New Overcoats at $15

Overcoats at this price are a matter of great concern with us. Our $15 showing is probably the most extensive in town. Of this fact make certain—there's not an overcoat within $3 of its price that can equal ours—so splendidly are they tailored, so correctly styled. The fabrics are noteworthy for their beauty of color and weave, and are shown in all of the newest shades. New loose back and semi-fitted models, all specially priced at $15.

The New Overcoats at $18

Here are the overcoats that have caught the fancy of men who are thoroughly abreast of the hour—but at $18 less than one would expect to pay for such splendid specimens of style and tailoring. The new box model, with loose back—big and roomy—in light gray, tan, brown and olive shades, in striped, overplaid, diagonal and herringbone effects—fabrics of amazing beauty. Great values, indeed, at $18.

Silk-Lined Overcoats at $20

In good taste, no matter when or where worn, these luxurious silk-lined overcoats are without question the best at their price in town. We doubt if you can equal them for $25—and even at that price they would be good values. The fabric is an elegant, soft, rich black Thibet, with silk lining throughout, some to the edge of the lapels, in the semi-fitted and loose back models. Unequaled at $20.

Spring Overcoats and Suits for BIG MEN at $15 $20 $25

This store has the distinction—and perhaps an exclusive one—of being able to show big men up to 52-inch chest measure an assortment of suits and overcoats at all times as big and as diversified as that offered to the men of normal build. If the men in this class will come direct to Vogel Brothers' it will be the end of their troubles in getting a perfect-fitting garment all ready to put on and wear.
